John Mather has had a successful 50-year career in the property investment and wealth management business. Based in Marylebone, Chelsea and the City of London during that time, he ran a very successful financial planning company with 119 clients and over £600m assets under management (AUM) at its peak. As a result he also has wide experience in both residential and commercial property.

While advising a former client on moving to Portugal, John became so enthusiastic about the project that he moved to Portugal himself in 2016, and in 2020 he became permanently resident in Madeira. He now advises others on how to make the move successfully via his new company Digital Émigré.
